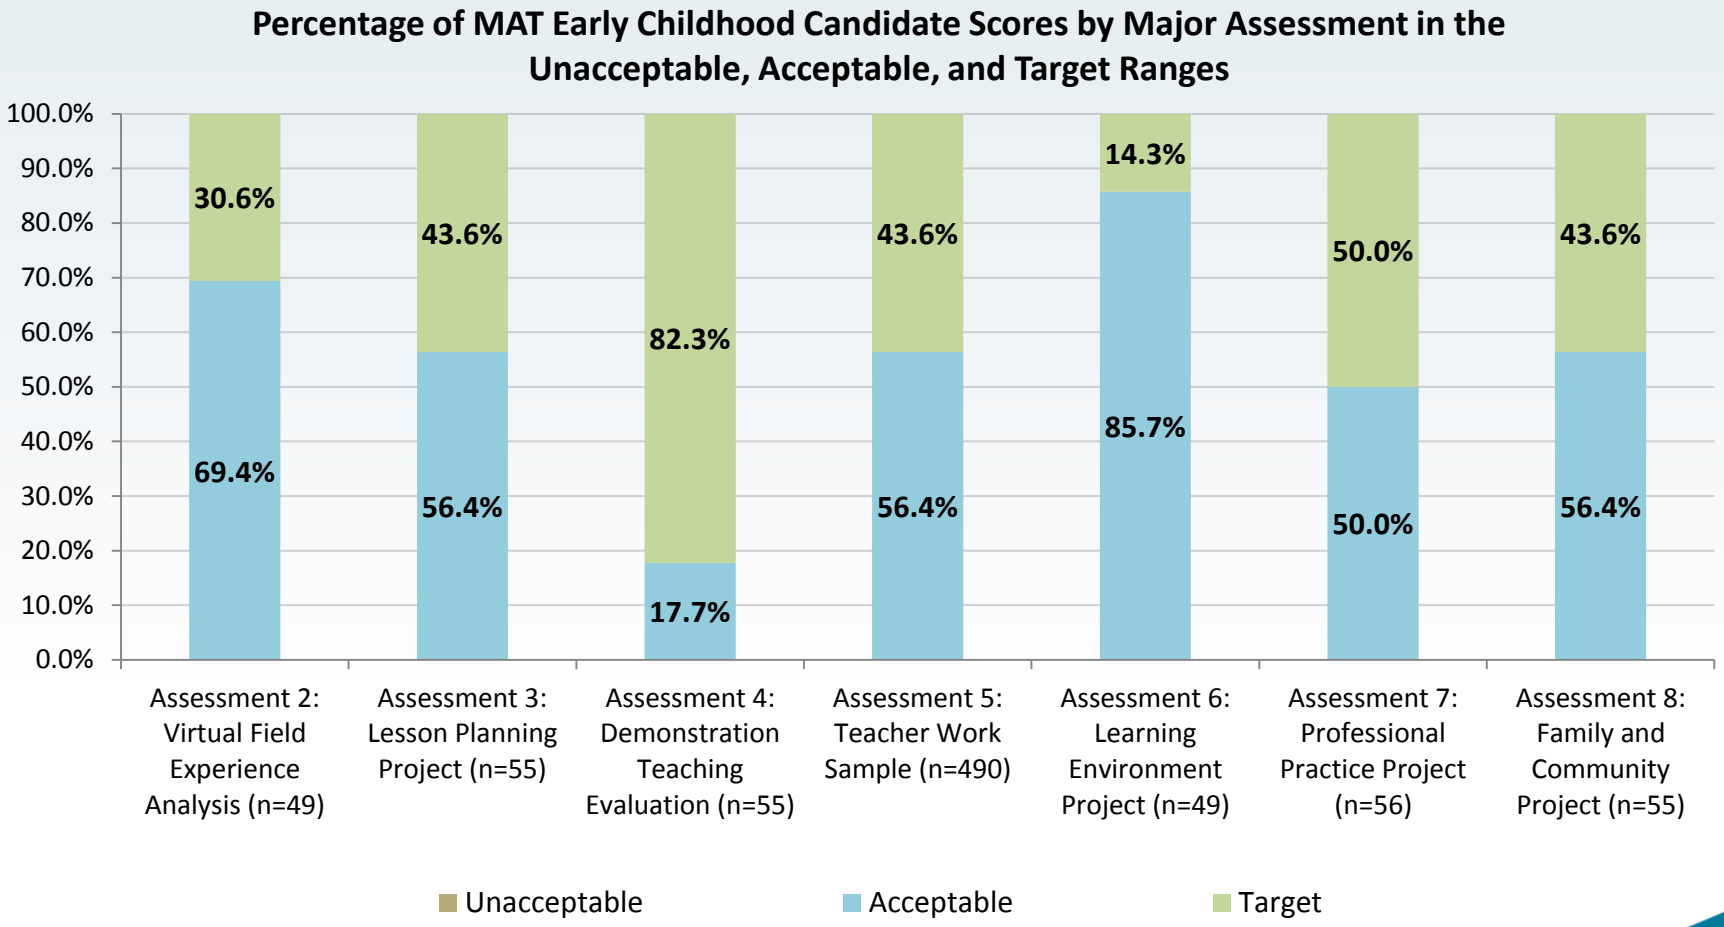
Riley College of Education and Leadership
Master of Arts in Teaching - Early Childhood Education
Student Performance on Program Major Assessments

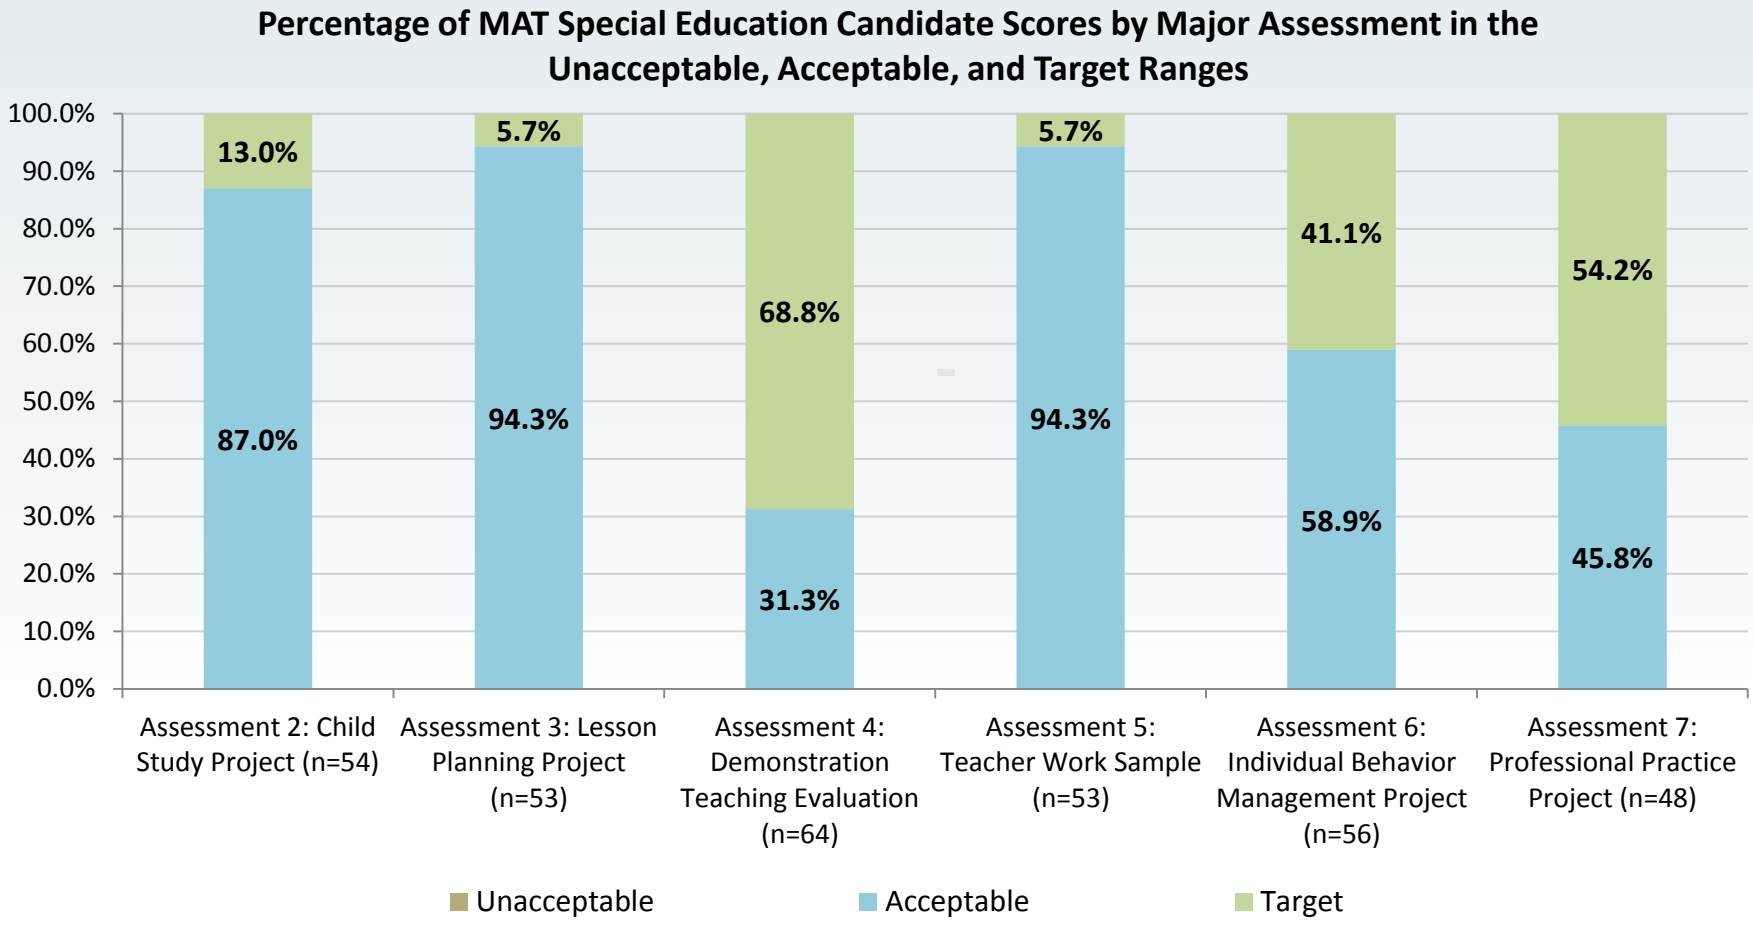


Assessment results shown represent administrations occurring between 9/1/2011 and 8/31/2012. See next page for assessment descriptions.

Riley College of Education and Leadership
Master of Arts in Teaching - Early Childhood Education
Major Assessment Descriptions

Assessment	Description
Assessment 1: Praxis II	Candidates must pass this standardized, nationally-normed examination of subject matter and professional knowledge.
Assessment 2: Virtual Field Experience Analysis	Candidates observe, describe, and reflect on real classroom footage related to assessment, curriculum, diversity, instruction, technology, etc.
Assessment 3: Lesson Planning Project	Candidates perform instructional planning process including curriculum goals, instructional strategies, assessment practices, technology, and reflection.
Assessment 4: Demonstration Teaching Evaluation	Candidates demonstrate proficiency in their final clinical experience including development, diversity, instruction, assessment, classroom management, collaboration, professionalism, and communication.
Assessment 5: Teacher Work Sample	Candidates perform instructional planning process including classroom context, assessment practices, instructional modification, and reflection.
Assessment 6: Learning Environment Project	Candidates observe, analyze, implement, and reflect on the needs, goals, and individual planning able in a specific classroom environment.
Assessment 7: Professional Practice Project	Candidates advocate for their own professional development as well as the needs of others.
Assessment 8: Family and Community Project	Candidates engage in the process of advocating for family and community needs.

Riley College of Education and Leadership
Master of Arts in Teaching – Special Education
Student Performance on Program Major Assessments



Assessment results shown represent administrations occurring between 9/1/2011 and 8/31/2012. See next page for assessment descriptions.

Riley College of Education and Leadership
Master of Arts in Teaching – Special Education
Major Assessment Descriptions

Assessment	Description
Assessment 1: Praxis II	Candidates must pass this standardized, nationally-normed examination of subject matter and professional knowledge.
Assessment 2: Child Study Project	Candidates observe, analyze, implement, and reflect on the needs, goals, and individual education planning of a child.
Assessment 3: Lesson Planning Project	Candidates perform instructional planning process including curriculum goals, instructional strategies, assessment practices, technology, and reflection.
Assessment 4: Demonstration Teaching Evaluation	Candidates demonstrate proficiency in their final clinical experience including development, diversity, instruction, assessment, classroom management, collaboration, professionalism, and communication.
Assessment 5: Teacher Work Sample	Candidates perform instructional planning process including classroom context, assessment practices, instructional modification, and reflection.
Assessment 6: Individual Behavior Management	Candidates observe, analyze, implement, and reflect on classroom needs, goals, and behavior management and planning.
Assessment 7: Professional Practice Project	Candidates advocate for their own professional development as well as the needs of others.