

Walden: A Military Friendly School

You can take the next step toward your future by earning your degree at Walden University. Named as one of the nation's top military friendly schools, Walden honors the Yellow Ribbon GI Education Enhancement Program,* as well as other military education benefits. At Walden, our mission is to help our students make a positive change—in their lives, in their careers, and in the world.

Earn Your Degree Anytime and Anywhere

Founded in 1970, Walden is an accredited university with a proud history of serving the education needs of the military. By providing broad access to quality higher education through online learning, Walden has become the choice for more than 2,400 veterans and active-duty servicemembers.

Active-Duty Military and Veterans Benefits

If you are currently serving in the U.S. military, or if you are a military veteran or an employee of the Department of Veterans Affairs, Walden offers you a 15% tuition reduction.† Walden also honors the following education benefits for active-duty servicemembers, reservists, and veterans of the armed forces:

- The Montgomery GI Bill (MGIB) reimburses tuition costs through an education assistance allowance.
- The Post-9/11 GI Bill applies direct funds to cover a portion of costs for tuition, fees, and books.
- Tuition Assistance gives a portion of funds to cover costs of tuition and fees. This program is sponsored by the specific branch of the military you serve.
- Tuition Assistance Top-Up provides the remaining funds for tuition costs that are not covered under the Tuition Assistance program.
- The VA Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment Program offers benefits to veterans with service-connected disabilities.
- The Yellow Ribbon GI Education Enhancement Program covers tuition costs that have not been applied under the Post-9/11 GI Bill.*

A Military Friendly School

G.I. Jobs named Walden to its 2014 list of Military Friendly Schools®, which honors the top 20% of colleges, universities, and trade schools that are doing the most to embrace America's veterans as students.

*Program eligibility is determined by the U.S. military in accordance with program provisions.

†Only one tuition-reduction benefit may be applied to tuition.

Discover the Walden Difference

A Mission of Social Change

Walden is committed to making a difference in the lives of others. Our degree programs go beyond core professional knowledge to help you effect positive social change. We encourage you to question assumptions, solve problems, and collaborate with fellow students to enhance your critical thinking skills and to boost your awareness of what it takes to have a positive impact on those around you.

A Breadth of Relevant Programs

Whichever Walden program you choose, you can expect to explore real-world issues that matter to you now while you prepare for the challenges and opportunities of tomorrow. You can apply what you learn right away, on the job, while you increase your knowledge and expertise to advance your career in the future. University programs are approved through the Minnesota State Approving Agency for the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs.

Expert Faculty

Our faculty members are active professionals in their fields who bring a wealth of experience to the courses they teach. They are specially trained to foster collaborative learning and to give each student personalized attention in the online classroom.

State-of-the-Art Learning Experiences

Walden uses online technology to enhance learning and provide access to educational opportunities. Our online learning features include:

- MobileLearn®, which allows you to access course content using your laptop, smartphone, or other handheld device.
- Virtual Field Experience, which offers you the chance to learn best practices by observing actual professionals in the workplace, such as teachers managing their classrooms or psychologists counseling patients.
- The myWalden app, which enables you to access courses, email, and support services from your mobile device.

Dedicated Team

Walden has a team of VA-trained certifying officials dedicated to supporting servicemembers, veterans, and their dependents. In addition, we have a dedicated Office of Disability Services that provides a broad range of resources to help support the needs of all learners with documented disabilities.
