IRS Tax Return Transcript and Verification of Non-Filing Request Process

Tax filers (including victims of IRS tax-related identity theft) can request from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) an IRS Tax Return Transcript of their 2018 tax return information, free of charge, in several ways.

Under all methods, when requesting a transcript, tax filers need to provide their Social Security Number (SSN), date of birth, their street address, and ZIP Code as is currently on file with the IRS. Generally, this is the address included on the latest tax return filed with the IRS. However, if an address change was made either with the IRS or with the U.S. Postal Service, the IRS may have the updated address on file. If this is the case, use the updated address.

Joint Tax Return - When requesting a transcript using the electronic processes described below, use the primary tax filer's information (e.g., SSN). When requesting a transcript using the paper process described below, either spouse may submit the request and only one signature is required.

Tax Transcript Availability – Availability varies based on the method a tax filer used to file their return and whether they have a refund or balance due. Visit <https://www.irs.gov/individuals/transcript-availability> for more information.

Nontax filers must provide confirmation of their non-filing status from the IRS or other relevant tax authority. A nontax filer is an individual who did not file taxes, is not required to file taxes, or was granted a filing extension. A dependent student who is a nontax filer is not required to provide an IRS Verification of Non-Filing Letter or other confirmation of non-filing status; only their parent(s) (if applicable).

Please note: If you are having trouble obtaining your tax transcript or a Verification of Non-filing Letter, please contact the Office of Financial Aid for assistance.

Victims of IRS Tax-Related Identity Theft

A victim of IRS identity theft who is not able to obtain a 2018 IRS Tax Transcript must still complete the verification process.

You may obtain a Transcript DataBase View (TRDBV) transcript and inform the IRS of the tax-related identity theft by calling the IRS's Identity Protection Specialized Unit (IPSU) at 1-800-908-4490. The IPSU will first authenticate your identity, which then you can ask the IRS to mail you a 2018 TRDBV tax transcript. You should receive this transcript generally within 5-10 business days.

Non-IRS Income Tax Returns

If you filed an income tax return with Guam, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico or the U.S. Virgin Islands, you may provide a signed copy of your income tax return that was filed with the relevant tax authority. However, if Walden University questions the accuracy of the information on the signed copy of the income tax return, you must provide a copy of the tax account information issued by the relevant tax authority.

If you filed an income tax return with the tax authority for American Samoa, you must provide a signed copy of your tax account information.

If you filed an income tax return with tax authorities not mentioned above, i.e. a foreign tax authority, and who indicates that you are unable to obtain the tax account information free of charge, you must provide documentation that the tax authority charges a fee to obtain that information, along with a signed copy of your income tax return that was filed with the relevant tax authority.

NONTAX FILERS

Verification of Non-filing Letter

If you did not file an IRS tax return for 2018 but have filed taxes in the past, you can use the Get Transcript Online option listed above (if successfully registered) to obtain a PDF page indicating that the IRS has no record of a tax return being filed. The * symbol next to the return transcript year 2018 will indicate the availability of a Verification of Non-filing Letter. You can choose “Verification of Non-filing” and enter 2018 in the tax year field. This letter must be dated on or after October 1, 2019.

If you are not able to successfully register to use the Get Transcript Online tool or have never filed an IRS tax return, you will need to request a Verification of Non-filing (VONF) Letter using the paper request form method below.

If you would typically file a non-IRS tax return, you will need to obtain the Verification of Non-filing Letter from the tax authority.
